

New Rosé

This time of year one cannot have enough rosé. Here are two new arrivals to help you cool off this month.

2013 Chinook Cabernet Franc Rosé Yakima Valley $15.89

“Fresh, lively and smelling like ripe strawberries or strawberry freezer jam, Chinook’s classic dry Rosé is a Washington summer favorite. We make our Rosé each year from one of our personal favorite varieties: Cabernet Franc. It’s best served chilled, with salty snacks, summer salads or by itself on the patio with friends.” –Winemaker notes.

2013 Les Vignerons de Grimaud Rosé Cuvée Du Golfe de Saint Tropez Côtes de Provence $14.99

With its intense floral bouquet, this delicate, luminous wine keeps its freshness and brilliance from start to finish. The taste is clean, with a rather lively attack and a lot of aroma. A remarkably well-balanced and expressive Rosé. Food pairings: pleasant not only as an aperitif but also with seafood.

Red Wines

2010 Owen Roe Yakima Valley Red $48.99/$35.49/$31.94

“This signature Yakima Valley Red Wine is a unique blend of the varietals we feel best represent the vintage. Enticing aromas of plum, blueberry and violet are intertwined with flavors of dark chocolate, brown sugar and violet. 55% Merlot, 41% Cabernet Franc, and 4% Malbec. This velvety Bordeaux-styled blend can be enjoyed now through 2023+.” –Winemaker notes. New vintage.

2011 Robert Foley Vineyards ‘The Griffin’ Red Wine Napa Valley $47.99/$29.99/$26.99

Bob Foley, who for many years was winemaker for Pride Mountain, now makes his own wines. “This youthful 2011 Griffin drinks like a Pomerol! Aromas and flavors of red cherry and red currant carried by an elegantly weighted mid-palate and perfect balance. The finish is graced with a touch of mocha and espresso and finishes long with very fine gentle tannins. A blend of 65% Merlot, 16% Syrah, 14% Petite Sirah, and 5% Charbono. Delicioso!” –Winemaker notes. New vintage.

2010 Tranche Cellars Barbera Columbia Valley $26.99/$23.39/$21.05

“Fragrant and seductive on the nose with lifted aromas of cranberry, dried red currant, allspice and anise. The palate showcases the freshness and purity of this varietal, with tart raspberry and cherry stone flavors, alongside herbaceous elements of tobacco leaf and earth. Soft, fleshy and supple in texture, with a seamless acidity that draws out the palate to a lacy and persistent finish. 364 cases produced.” –Winemaker notes. New vintage.

2010 Foundry Vineyards Red Walla Walla Valley $20.99/$17.79/$16.01

“Our logo encourages us to work diligently and passionately as we craft our wines for your enjoyment. Primarily known as a utilitarian instrument of motion, the cog also points to inspired progress, which we exhibit through our artistic focus. 56% Cabernet Sauvignon, 34% Merlot, 5% Malbec, 5% Petit Verdot. Gold, Seattle Wine Awards 2014.” –Winemaker notes. New vintage.

2013 Saint Cosme Rouge Côtes du Rhône $16.99/$13.99/$12.59

“The 2013 vintage was a great vintage for Syrah, with the late and cool season in the Northern Rhone Valley. The Syrah from Vinsobres and from the Terraces of Villafranchiennes of the Gard gave remarkable results with full fruit freshness with nice, tight texture. Very straight forward and precise. Flavors and aromas of licorice, violet, red berries and black currant.” –Winemaker notes. New vintage.

2010 Cavatappi Sangiovese Wahluke Slope $15.99/$12.19/$10.97

Winemaker Peter Dow. Aromas of sweet watermelon and minerals, along with delicate black notes of licorice and tar. The palate is juicy and vibrant, full of red fruit and a streak of tar. Eminently drinkable. New vintage.

2008 Les Capucins Rouge Côteaux du Languedoc France $14.99/$11.19/$10.07

This delicious rendition from Les Capucins captures the essence of this rugged region at a very affordable price. Opens with elegant aromas of red plums, tobacco and an intriguing floral top note. Suavely textured on the palate, the wine conveys classic Languedoc notes of tar, bay leaf, sappy dried oregano, lavender and sweet cherry fruit. Complex and satisfying, the Capucins finishes with sappy cherry fruit lifted by a balancing acid backbone and fine, framing tannins. New vintage.

2012 Tortoise Creek Carignan Vieilles Vignes Herault $14.99/$11.19/$10.07

“Our Carignan with all vines over 50 years old has lovely aromas of wild herbs and red berries. On the plate it is rich and full bodied with hints of spice and leather. The wine is aged in French oak to add complexity and roundness to the blend resulting in a juicy, intense and full-flavored wine. –Winery notes. New item.

White Wines

2013 Mark Ryan Winery Viognier Columbia Valley $32.99/$27.99/$25.19

“Notes of orange blossom, Meyer lemon, subtle banana and buttered bread. The neutral French oak barrel aging offers hints of smoke, while adding richness broad flavors of tart stone fruit and minerals. The luxuriant mouth feel is offset by the wine’s buoyant acidity, holding the wine together tightly. The finish is impressive in length. 800 cases made.” –Winemaker notes. New vintage.

2013 Château Ducasse Bordeaux Blanc $18.99/$14.99/$13.49

“Vibrant, juicy, and aromatic Bordeaux Blanc, a unique blend of predominantly Sémillon (60%) and Sauvignon Blanc with a splash of Muscadelle. Orchard fruits, honeydew and magnolia blossom are balanced by juicy acidity, and a vibrant streak of minerality. A rich, full, aromatic mid-palate to complement the clean finish. Kermit Lynch import.” –Winery notes. New vintage.

2012 Edna Valley Vineyard Paragon Chardonnay Central Coast California $16.99/$12.19/$10.97

“The Edna Valley Vineyard Chardonnay displays an attractive bouquet of quince, pineapple, white peach and apricot, with underlying notes of brown spice and vanilla. A fresh mouthfeel and a bright acidity combine to form a long, pleasing finish in this medium-bodied wine.” –Winemaker notes. New vintage.

Outdoor Vino Wanderlust White American NV $14.99/$11.19/$9.99

“This is a white wine blend that bursts in your mouth like a summer fruit salad and leaves a honeysuckle tingle on your tongue. Is there really any outdoor place that doesn’t call for a good wine conveniently packaged for the outdoors? We don’t think so. This plastic wine bottle is portable and durable, reusable and recyclable. BPA-free and one sixth the weight of a traditional bottle and with a handy screw cap, it was meant to be taken outside.” –Winery notes. New item.

2013 The Crossings Sauvignon Blanc Awatere Valley
Marlborough New Zealand $18.99/$9.99/$8.99

“Pungently herbal, but filled with grapefruit and a hint of peach at the same time, offering a wonderful balance of ripe fruit character with herbal, savory notes. Easy to drink: It’s full and round in the mouth, with good persistence.” -Wine Enthusiast, 91 points. New vintage.

Rosé Wines

2013 Domaine de la Bastide Blanche Bandol Rosé
$27.99/$20.59/$18.53

A classic, Provençal Rosé. Salmon pink in color. Displays mineral-accented aromas of strawberry, nectarine and pink grapefruit, along with a dusty mineral overtone and a hint of pungent herbs. Deliciously refreshing with a perfectly-balanced and lengthy finish. The Rosé is a blend of 60% Mourvèdre, 20% Grenache and 16% Cinsault, remainder Syrah, Clairette, and Carignan. New vintage.

2013 Domaine Lafond Tavel Roc-Epine Rosé Rhône
$23.99/$19.59/$17.63

“The predominant aromas are complex, red and white fruit associated with floral notes. With time, the fruit aromas evolve towards more mellow notes, with a touch of spice and stone fruit. It is a lovely, aromatic wine which can be enjoyed as early as the first year, but it also has exceptional ageing potential. Grenache 60%, Cinsault 10%, Syrah 10%, Carignan 5% and the rest: Clairette, Picpoul, Bourboulenc and Mourvèdre.” -Winery notes. New vintage.

2013 Domaine Sorin Rosé Bandol Provence
$23.99/$16.79/$15.11

People think that Bandol Rosé should be powerful; they’re not. Like in a nicer Chardonnay, one looks for refinement and focus, not ripe, ripe and ripe. The wine is fine, fruity and aerial on the nose, but on the palate the finesse, elegance and generosity really stand out. Perfect with Mediterranean cuisine—grilled fish or veggies with herbs and stuffed tomatoes. This wine will go with just about everything. New vintage.

2013 Amezttoi ‘Rubentis’ Rosé Getariako Txakolina Spain
$19.99/$16.79/$15.11

The Amezttoi family has been making txakolina for seven generations, utilizing the indigenous 50% Hondarribi Zuri and 50% Hondarribi Beltza grapes to craft a light, crisp wine bottled with residual carbon to give it its signature natural spritz. By adjusting the blend to increase the amount of Hondarribi Beltza, the red Txakolina grape, Amezttoi has made this Rosé Txakolina that retains all the freshness of traditional white Txakolina but with a slight taste of strawberries and red candied fruit. Great for sipping while sharing a warm summer evening with friends. New vintage.

$18.99/$15.89/$14.30

“Fresh, lively and smelling like ripe strawberries or strawberry freezer jam, Chinook’s classic dry Rosé is a Washington summer favorite. We make our Rosé each year from one of our personal favorite varieties: Cabernet Franc. It’s best served chilled, with salty snacks, summer salads or by itself on the patio with friends.” -WineMaker notes. New vintage.

2013 Les Vignerons de Grimaud Rosé Cuvée Du Golfe de Saint
Tropez Côtes de Provence $17.99/$14.99/$13.49

With its intense floral bouquet, this delicate, luminous wine keeps its freshness and brilliance from start to finish. The taste is clean, with a rather lively attack and a lot of aroma. A remarkably well-balanced and expressive Rosé. Food pairings: pleasant not only as an aperitif but also with seafood. New vintage.

2013 Evesham Wood Tempranillo Rosé Willamette Valley
$17.99/$13.99/$12.59

“Once again all of the Tempranillo grown for us by the Ford’s over at Illahe Vineyard has gone into our Tempranillo Rosé. The grapes were picked when sugar levels were moderate and acid was abundant. They were crushed and soaked overnight on the skins, then pressed the next morning. This year it shows darker color (similar to 2010) with aromas of strawberry and melon. 160 cases produced.”
-Winery notes. New vintage.

2013 Domaine Le Clos des Lumières Rosé Côtes du Rhône
$9.99/$7.49/$6.74

Color of rose petals with hints of fuchsia. Very fine nose dominated by strawberry aromas. The palate will again reveal the strawberries, in addition to both wild and cherry. The mid-palate shows some spiciness, followed by a pink grapefruit and flint finish. A blend of Grenache Noir, Viognier, Mourvèdre and Cinsault. New vintage.
