

Leschi Cellars

Just in case you hadn't heard yet, there's a new winery in town: Leschi Cellars! Our first ever release has been met with wild fanfare. Thank you for the support. All are pretty limited this time around. Cheers!

2014 Leschi Cellars Lakeside Reserve Red Blend Walla Walla ($19.99)

"We have been listening. This Bordeaux-style red blend hails from Walla Walla and possesses all of the traits you have been looking for—deep velvety fruit balanced by supple tannins and acidity. Enjoy daily or pair with Leschi Market's famous prime rib. A very serious and age-worthy wine that is only just now coming into its prime, and is bound to develop nicely over the next 5-7 years.

2016 Leschi Cellars Lakeside Rouge McNary Vineyard Horse Heaven Hills ($12.99)

"Started in 1948, little has changed at Seattle's favorite neighborhood market. In the spirit of uncompromised quality, we have fashioned this balanced blend of 80% Cabernet and 20% Merlot. Meant to be enjoyed young, it has been (barely) aged in neutral French barrels to allow the deep dark incredibly inviting subtleties of this cooler-climate vineyard to beam forth. -Winery notes.

2016 Leschi Cellars Pinot Gris Oregon ($11.99)

Made by Mike Hallock of Carabella Vineyards, this is an utterly perfect Pinot Gris. Lush and juicy white peach and nectarine flavors, great mouthfeel and absolutely thirst quenching, mouth-watering acidity. This is an ultimate summertime wine that will easily pair with food and leave you wanting more.

2016 Leschi Cellars Rosé McNary Vineyard Horse Heaven Hills ($11.99)

Made in the style of the bone dry beauties from Provence, the fruit for our Rosé comes from the relatively cool climate site McNary Vineyard in the Horse Heaven Hills. Tart strawberry and citrus rind notes with low alcohol, fresh demeanor and zippy acidity. Fermented to 0 residual sugar, so yes, friends, it is absolutely dry!
